CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

The proverb, "In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death," is the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on "Mortals and Immortals" on Sunday in all Christian churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Among the Bible selections in the Lesson-Sermon are these verses from the Gospel of John: "Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then shall ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. . . . If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. . . . Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death." Corollary passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, state: "Man in the likeness of God as revealed in Science cannot help being immortal. . . . In Science, man's mortality depends upon that of God, good, and follows as a necessary consequence of the immortality of good."

The third of a series of sermons on "The Coming King" will be given next Sunday morning when the pastor will preach on "The Results and Signs of His Appearance." These messages are based on a searching of the Scripture, enlightening and convincing to those who would know the truth concerning this most important event.

The boys and girls were delighted to have their mothers take part in the opening exercises of Sunday school on Mothers' Day. Each mother present had something to do; and it was a very happy occasion.

The group of men and women who gathered Monday evening for the first of Dr. Irving D. Ewart's discussions on health problems was in no wise disappointed. The questions asked were of a nature to be of interest to all; and information of value was brought to light in the doctor's answers. It is the desire of Dr. Ewart to show what may be done in the home in the way of maintaining the health of the family. All are welcome to this class which meets at 7:30 Monday evenings.

struction purposes, is slated to go to trial Monday, in Los Angeles county superior court. Roman D. Sepulveda is the defendant-owner.

Ludlow Reports
Mayor Scott R. Ludlow, Torrance representative on the sewer board, stated Tuesday evening at the city council meeting that men living within the Metropolitan sewer districts would be given preference in securing employment, and that a local registration office would be established in the near future where residents of this district may apply for work. The huge project will require several hundred men including skilled mechanics and common laborers. The minimum wage rate for common labor will be $4.50 per day and the lowest rate for skilled labor, $11.10 per hour, Ludlow stated.

Steel Pipe
Of interest to Torrance industries is the fact that sewer district engineers are favorably inclined to the use of concrete jacketed steel pipe, particularly for that portion of the outfall which will be laid on the ocean floor, Mayor Ludlow stated. He also reported that the suit for $20,000 damages against the district for alleged infringement of a patented activated sludge process has been settled for $8,300.
